This image shows a page of bass sheet music for the piece "It's Nearly Africa Bass pg 2". The music is written in bass clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The score consists of 15 staves. The first six staves begin with a double bar line and a repeat sign, indicating a section to be repeated. The music features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. There are several measures with rests, and some measures contain a cross symbol (x) or a flat symbol (b) on the bass line. The piece concludes with a double bar line, a fermata, and a final measure containing a fermata over a whole note, with the number "8" written above it, and a final measure with a fermata over a whole note, with the number "4" written above it.
